RECORD OF INVESTIGATION.

The accused appeared before the High Court on the 28/3/34 when, on all evidence being presented he was remanded to 3/4/34. He was released on the security of Lawyer Chiang Koh Foo and Mrs Mei Zah Yuin Ying.

Accused came to the station at 2.30 p.m. 28/3/34 when he was further interrogated.

He admitted knowing the man arrested by the P.S.B., one Hwang Chang Yun(黄金昶). The latter worked as a clerk in the office of a lawyer Hu Chien Fang(胡建芳) who is a life-long friend of accused. He had previously met Hwang while working in Nanking. He had never had any correspondence with Hwang Chang Yun but met him on two or three occasions when attending dinner parties and as is the usual custom had exchanged cards with him.

Y'pao Stn. 31/3/34

Further of my first statement, I have been interrogated as to my knowledge of the man Hwang Ching Van(黃金範). The first thing I knew of his arrest was when I heard the detective from the Public Safety Bureau tell the Judge in court the morning on which I was arraigned before him.

I first became acquainted with Hwang in 1923 when I went to Anking and procured a job in the Civil Governor's office, Yu Tian Yuen was the governor at that time and Hwang was working in the telegram department.

The next time I met Hwang was two years after I arrived in Shanghai (about 193). On this occasion I attended a dinner party given by Ho S au Hwan(賀小青) secretary of the Shanghai Mint. At that time Hwang was working as a clerk in the Nantao City court.

A year later I met Hwang at a dinner given by Lawyer Wu Chien Pang(吳建邦) who is a life-long friend of mine. At that time Hwang was working as a clerk in Lawyer Wu' office.

I have met Hwang on several occasions since then at the office of Lawyer Wu, when I visit occasionally.

I cannot recollect ever having written a letter to Hwang Ching Van, and the only reason I can think of as to how my name came into his possession is that he may have a visiting card of mine which I gave to him during the exchange of courtesy at the time of the dinners where I met him.

This is my true statement.

Proceedings. Mr Chang :- In this case at 9.15.p.m. on the 27th inst, acting on authority of this search warrant, and this arrest warrant, (handed to Judge), the representatives of the Public Safety Bureau, requested the Settlement Police to assist them in arresting the accused at No 7 Lieu Tshung Li, Y'poo Road. Assistance was accordingly rendered and the accused was arrested. A careful search was made of the accused's room, but nothing could be found of a Communistic nature. At the Police Station, the accused was questioned but he denied that he was a communist, or that he was in any way connected with the Communist party. Moreover he states that he is a school teacherof the Kong Mur Yuen Missionary school, and has been employed there for the past six years. The School Mistress was located, and her statement coincided with that of the accused. She made special mention, that the accused is a Christian and of excellent character. The Political Section (S.M.P.) togethe with detectives from Y.'Poo Station, have made enquiries and find that the statement of the accused and the School Mistress are correct. I understand that the P.S.Bureau have no evidence to offer, except that sometime ago a person was arrested by them, and on his possession was found a list of names one of which was that of the accused. The person arrested referred to, was found to be a communist therefore it woul seem that the P.S.B. are of the opinion that this accused together with the others mentioned on the list mentioned are also communists

The Municipal Council, do not wish to cause the accused to be detained should he be an innocent party, but on the other hand they want to give the Public Safety Bureau time to complete their enquiries, whereupon they may or may not produce prima facie evidence at the next hearing. In view of this, I ask that this case be remanded so that enquiries can be made. The accused so far as the Council is concerned, may be released upon furnishing security.

Representative of the P.S.B. Dan Yong Ching :- A communist was arrested sometime ago. On his person a list of names was seized. The name of this accused was appended on this list. A copy of the list was sent to the Garrison Commander from Nanking, with an order that this accused had to be arrested. An arrest warrant and a Search warrant was applied for from this court, and later with the assistance of the Settlement Police, the accused was arrested. I have no other evidence to offer. There are fifteen names appended on the list mentioned. I oppose the accused being released upon furnishing security. Judge in reply :- I want to remind you that this court will decide the question of release whether you object or not, the question now before the court is the lack of evidence in the case of this accused.

Accused :- I am a School Teacher, employed at the Hong Eur Yuen Missionary School No 3 Lane No 1541 Y'poo Road. I have been employed at the latter premises for the past six years. I live with my family at premises No 10. in the same alleyway as the school. I am a Christian, I was baptised twenty years ago. I am not a communist, and I am not concerned with any communist party. I know nothing about the communist teachings.

~~D.S.I. Golders.~~

Y'poo Stn. 27-3-44.

Translated by D.S.S. Liu.

My name is Chang Kai Sung. I am 50 years of age and a native of Tai Hu Hsien, Anwei. I am married and have four children, two sons and two daughters. I am a Christian and belong to the Methodist Religion. I was born in the town of Tai Hu Hsien. My father and mother are both dead. Formerly, my father Chiang Yung Chu n (蒋锦侍) was a shopkeeper at Tai Hu Hsien. I started studying with a priv te tutor when I was 7 years old, and when I was 18 years old I went to the Provincial Government Normal School at Nanking in Anhwei, where I studied fo 3 years. The subjects I studied were those usually learnt by those who were studying to become school teachers, that is, Geography, Mathematics, History and Chinese. On leaving this school I went to the Toong Wen Hsu Yeun (同文书院), a Methodist missionary school, outside the south gate of Wiukiang. The name of this school has now been changed to William Nast College. I remained at this school for two years, during which time I studied in the Divinity class, as I wanted to become a Methodis missionary. On leaving the Toong Wen Hsu Yeun I returned to Tai Hu Hsien where I entered the "Foo Ying Jaung" as a school teacher, and a preacher. I remained at this place for one year and three months, after which I left to go to Tsinanfu, Shantung, to join a friend of mine Hong Shou Ts (洪寿之) who cabled me to go to him at once, as he had a job for me, as a council official. My friend Mr. Hong was secretary to the Governor of Shantung. I assumed the post of council official immediately on arrival, and held this post for four months. I was then appointed Director of the Salt Gab lle at Hai Cho (雎州), Honan, and this appointment I held for a year and 9 months. After this I returned to my native town Tai Hu Hsien. I remained in Tai Hu Hsien for eight years, living on the farm which had been left to me by my father at his death. During these eight years I spent all my time employed on my farm. As my father had been a man of high social ~~standard~~ standing and had often acted as arbitrator in the social troubles of the local peasants, I now found myself holding a similar position, and so was kept quite busy.

During the year 1926 I was taken prisoner by the army of the General Li Chung Jen (李宗仁) of the 7th Army, and held captive for five months in Huang Mei (黄梅) Hsien, Hupeh. I was released on the defeat of Li Chung Jen by General Sha Tou Ping, when I went to live at Anking. I did not dare to go back to my home owing to the political situation there. After I had spent a year in Anking living on my income I came to Shanghai. I arrived in Shanghai about October 1927, when I went to live at No.10 Lieu Tshung Li, Yangtzepoo Road, the house in which I was arrested today. From October 1927 to January 1st 1928 I was considering taking a post as teacher in the Chinese Christian Day Nursery, No.3 Lieu Tshung Li, Yangtzepoo Road, which is run by Miss Mei Zah Yuin Ying, a lady friend of mine whom I had met at Hukiang some years before. I started as a half day teacher on January 1st 1934. This meant my spending the morning teaching and the afternoon canvassing for pupils among the neighbours. After six months I became a full day teacher, and I have occupied this post ever since.

I occupy the downstairs front room of No.10 Lieu Tahong Li, Yangtzepoo Road which is rented in the name of Miss Hei Yain Ying. I am a bonafide resident of the International Settlement, and Miss Hei Ah Yain Ying can testify to this. I am not a Communist and have never had any dealings with the Communist Party.

This statement is true.
